

Landlord Governing Bodies Response to self-assessment:

The managing director is responsible for making any necessary response to the self-assessment.

As there were no complaints during the last year no response is required.